

MANIS OIL SDN. BHD. (479761-A)

We are an established company engaged in CPO milling and would like to invite young and highly motivated, dynamic and energetic individuals to join our dynamic team.

Cadet Engineer

Responsibilities:

- In charge of specific stations in the palm oil milling, including processing, maintenance, housekeeping and modification.
- Maximise product extraction rates, maintaining good quality while minimise product losses.
- Plan and implement Preventive Maintenance and minimise machine failure / down time.
- Enhance the process line by contributing creative ideas towards higher efficiency in terms of costing and productivity.

Requirements:

- Provide good career path for fresh graduates with Diploma or Degree in Mechanical Engineering or equivalent
- Positive attitude, hardworking and willing to work at outstation
- Fluent in English with good technical report writing skills
- Able to work independently with minimum supervision

An attractive remuneration package that commensurate with experience and competency will be offered to the successful candidate***

Interested applicants are required to forward a detailed resume by including the information as below to us by 18th November 2020:-

- | | |
|--|-------------------------------------|
| 1. Academic background / qualification | 4. Expected salary |
| 2. Working experience | 5. Recent passport-sized photograph |
| 3. Current salary | 6. Copy of relevant certificates |

Human Resource Department

Manis Oil Sdn. Bhd.

No.6, Jalan Rawang

96000 Sibul

Email: hr.dept@taann.com.my

(Only shortlisted candidates will be notified)